The University of Louisiana Monroe Collegiate Admissions Program

Important Information to Consider

The above courses have been approved for the Collegiate Admissions Program, and they follow the 39 Hour Common Core Curriculum for every Degree Program at ULM. For convenience, they have been divided into certain areas such as: Fine Arts, English, Humanities, Math, Natural/Physical Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences.

Classes may not be offered every semester.

Maximum course load of six (6) credit hours per semester. Please check ULM's Schedule of Classes website for class availability. Students must have completed all university prerequisites as defined in the University Catalog. Please review our University Catalog online for more details.

 Indicates courses where additional fees will be applied due to it being a lab course.

 An additional $50 fee will be charged for each online course. Any courses selected after the enrollment deadline will be assessed a $100 late fee per course.
