I. Policy Statement

The University of Louisiana at Monroe (ULM) is fully committed to ensuring compliance with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and its Amending Act of 2008 (collectively ADA) to include:

- Title I: Prohibits discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in all employment practices, including recruitment, hiring, advancement, compensation, fringe benefits, job training and other terms, conditions and privileges of employment. Upon request, ULM shall engage in an interactive process and may approve a reasonable accommodation, unless the Requestor is not a qualified individual; doing so poses an undue hardship to the agency; or poses a direct threat to the health or safety of the individual with a disability or others.
- Title II: Ensures qualified individuals with disabilities have equal access to the full range of programs, services, activities and facilities of the agency. Upon request, ULM may provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the Requestor is not a qualified individual; doing so would fundamentally alter the nature of the agency's service, program or activity; or poses a direct threat to the health or safety of the individual with a disability or others.

II. Purpose of Policy

The purpose of this policy is to outline ULM's standards and procedures for purposes of ADA compliance.

III. Applicability

This policy applies to all ULM employees, applicants for employment, and members of the general public that receive services from ULM.

IV. Definitions

- A. Disability: Under the ADA, an individual with a disability is a person who:
1. Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities;
 2. Has a record of such impairment; or
 3. Is regarded as having such impairment as described in item #1 above.
- B. Impairment: Any physiological, mental or psychological disorder or condition, including those that are episodic or in remission, that substantially limits one or more major life activities when active.

- C. Substantially Limits: An impairment that prevents the ability of an individual to perform one or more major life activities as compared to most people in the general population when taking into consideration factors such as the nature, severity, duration and long-term impact of the condition. Such consideration must be regardless of any mitigating measures such as modifications, auxiliary aids or medications used to lessen the effects of the condition (except for use of ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses).
- D. Major Life Activities:
1. Generally, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, sitting, reaching, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, interacting with others and working; and
 2. The operation of a major bodily function, including functions of the immune system, special sense organs and skin; normal cell growth; and digestive, genitourinary, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, cardiovascular, endocrine, hemic, lymphatic, musculoskeletal and reproductive functions. The operation of a major bodily function includes the operation of an individual organ within a body system.
- E. Essential Functions: The fundamental and primary job duties of a position. Considerations in determining whether a function is essential include such factors as the written job description; whether the reason the position exists is to perform that function; the limited number of employees available to perform that function; and the degree of expertise required to perform the function.
- F. Qualified Individual:
1. Under Title I, an individual with a disability who meets the requisite skill, experience, and education requirements for the position and who can perform the essential functions of the position held or applied for, with or without reasonable accommodation(s).
 2. Under Title II, an individual with a disability who meets the essential eligibility requirements for the receipt of services or the participation in programs or activities provided by ULM, with or without reasonable accommodation(s), such as students and visitors on campus.
- G. Reasonable Accommodations:
1. Under Title I, a modification or adjustment to the work environment that will enable a qualified individual with a disability to:
 - a. Participate in the testing, application and/or interview process;
 - b. Perform the essential functions of the job; or
 - c. Provide equal opportunity to the benefits and privileges of employment.
 2. Under Title II, a modification that permits an individual with a disability to effectively communicate with ULM and/or ensure equal opportunity relative to ULM's programs, services, activities and facilities.

- H. Undue Hardship: An accommodation that would be unduly costly, extensive, substantial or disruptive, in light of factors such as the size of the agency, the resources available and the nature of the agency's business operations.
- I. Direct Threat: A significant risk of substantial harm to the health or safety of an individual with a disability or others that cannot be eliminated or reduced by reasonable accommodation.
- J. ADA Coordinator: The ULM representative responsible for facilitating the interactive, evaluation process relative to any request for Title I accommodations, whose name and contact information is provided below.

The immediate supervisor shall notify and collaborate with the ADA Coordinator to address the accommodation request. Such requests should include the benefits and/or privileges of employment in which the individual is unable to participate and the accommodation requested. Such accommodations may include restructuring work areas, lunchrooms, break rooms, training rooms and restrooms to make them available and accessible to all employees.

Additional guidelines may apply when renovations or alterations are undertaken. ULM shall coordinate construction and renovation in conjunction with appropriate state departments, as well as building code, regulatory and leasing entities, as applicable.

- Notify the Requestor, in writing, of the final determination, including information regarding the internal grievance procedure.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to suggest accommodations based upon their own life and/or work experiences. Such requested accommodations will be duly considered. Nonetheless, ULM reserves the right to select an equally effective accommodation that may be less expensive or impactful on business operations. All accommodation requests will be evaluated thoroughly and objectively on a case-by-case basis.
